

2019 RWJP ACCOMMODATION GUIDE

ACCOMMODATION

Participants of 2019 RWJP will stay at Ritsumeikan University International House Taishogun which is a newly built dormitory in 2015 fall for international students. The dormitory offers a safe and comfortable environment for students with no previous living experience in Japan to adjust to their new lifestyle and studies. It is not a hotel, but rather a "home" for its residents, where they will develop lifelong friendships. It is encouraged to abide by its rules and intended to help residents practice a Japanese lifestyle and develop their ability to understand and live independently under the rules of Japanese society.

Important Points

International House Taishogun is a university dormitory for international students. As such, we would like you to keep the following in mind when considering living in this dormitory.

- ◆ The dormitory is located in a quiet neighborhood. In order to prevent disturbances and help ensure a safe living environment for everyone, there are several rules in place regarding things like yelling in loud voices, making loud noises, and restrictions on the use of shared areas/items. No parties are allowed.
- ◆ Please keep the communal areas clear of personal possessions and garbage, and keep them clean and orderly.
- ◆ If there is noticeable damage or stains found in your room after the check-out, you will be asked to pay for any repairs or cleaning that may be necessary.
- ◆ A room key is provided to each students. If you lose your room key, you will be asked to pay a flat rate of approximately JPY36,000 for the replacement.
- ◆ The dormitory is unable to receive mail or parcels. In case of emergency, Ritsumeikan University International Center can receive them, but please consult with the Ritsumeikan staff in advance.
- ◆ Due to the dormitory regulations, we do not allow guests including buddies, friends, and family members to visit the dormitory.
- ◆ It is strictly prohibited to drink alcohol in the building other than your room.
- ◆ You are required to clean your room when you check out. Please throw away the trash, clean your room with a vacuum cleaner, and remove all the personal belonging from your room.
- ◆ Due to our regulation and safety reasons, you may not change your room with the other participants. Also, you are not allowed to change your accommodation during the program period once you check in.
